

Guide for getting to the University of Arizona Campus and Hotels

Arriving at Tucson International Airport:

The Tucson International Airport is located approximately 10 miles from the city center, and from the University of Arizona. The following transportation options are available from Tucson International Airport:

1. Taxi Service is available right outside the baggage claim area of the airport. The approximate cost for a taxi from Tucson International Airport to the University of Arizona area, where most of the hotels are located is nearly $25.
2. Arizona Stagecoach is a door-to-door shuttle van service. It is located inside the airport terminal, opposite the baggage claim area. Reservations are not required, but are helpful during busy periods. You can call 1.520.889.1000 for Reservations and Information. The approximate cost will be $18.
3. Car Rentals from most major rental agencies are available at the airport. Reservations must be booked in advance.

Arriving at the Sky Harbor Airport (Phoenix)

Sky Harbor Airport, the major airport in the Phoenix area, is approximately 100 miles from the University of Arizona. For this reason, a taxi from Phoenix is quite expensive. More viable options available from the Sky Harbor Airport are:

1. Arizona Shuttle is a shuttle service between Sky Harbor and the Tucson Metropolitan area. Call 1.520.795.6771 for reservations or information as reservations are necessary for travel. Reservation done 24 hours prior to travel will cost $27 from Sky Harbor Airport to Tucson and $35 for same day reservation. The Arizona Shuttle is not a door-to-door service, but it stops near the university area (6th Street and Park Avenue). Be sure to ask the driver to request a cab for you once you arrive in Tucson so that you are able to get to your hotel without excessive delay.
2. Car Rentals from most major rental agencies are available at the airport. Reservations must be booked in advance.
